Thinks New Law Won't Hurt Profits

PIKEVILLE, KY. (AP) — Robert Holcomb, president of the National Independent Coal Operators Association, says amendments to a federal coal mine safety law passed last week would not affect the profits of small mines.

Holcomb said small-mine operators were exempted from provisions of the safety code by the amendments.

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — Taped conversations with the Gemini 8 astronauts as they fought to regain control of their spacecraft were withheld from the public for 12 hours for a definite reason.

Space agency official Paul Haney said in an interview "it could have been morbid if the flight had had other than a happy ending."

Bob Thomas at the Movies

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-Television Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — What kind of a fellow is Lynda Bird Johnson's boy friend, George Hamilton?

He is a 26-year-old charmer who can regale a dinner table with story after story with the finesse of a sophisticated Bob Newhart.

He has been called, by friend Peter Fonda, "Jay Gatsby with a mortgage," after the ambitious, wealth-worshipping hero of F. Scott Fitzgerald.

He is a practicing Christian Scientist.

He is a better actor than most critics give him credit for being.

He has appeared in some of the worst pictures in recent times ("All the Fine Young Cannibals," "By Love Possessed," "Act One"), but even in a lemon like "To the Victors" he can shine through with a certain earnestness.

He has never had an acting lesson: "For me, the best tools are my own emotions."

He once had a mad, gay engagement with actress Susan Kohner but they called it off.

He is a son of wealth, but he claims he arrived in Hollywood with $90 and created a career all by himself.

He was born Aug. 12, 1939, in Memphis, Tenn., and attended 25 different schools.

He likes to drive his Rolls-Royce into a gas station and tell the attendant, "Fill'er up", the tank holds 50 gallons.

His mother is a latter-day Auntie Mame who has been married four times and presides over the 39-room house she shares with George.

He is a dude, not to mention dandy, and dresses in Edwardian style, usually with vests and tightly tied ties.

Guidelines for School Integration

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A federal official said Wednesday he hoped school administrators in Arkansas would avoid an approach of seeing how little integration a district can get by with and still retain federal financial favor.

John Hope II of Washington, U.S. Office of Education director for five states, including Arkansas, met with public school officials here to discuss new federal guidelines for school desegregation.

John Hodgdon, an attorney for the Education Office, said the guidelines did not lead to racial balance in schools but to unitary school systems without regard to race.

He said the four major changes in the guidelines were: —The desegregation of facilities.

—Insuring that free choice plans are operated in such a way as to break down dual systems.

—Elimination of unequal education programs and facilities.

—Standardization of reporting procedures to eliminate much effort by the Office of Education in negotiating individual desegregation plans.

"If we can work together in good faith," Hope said, "we can better determine what the best solution is."

State Education Commissioner A. W. Ford, who arranged the conference, said he regretted "These revised policy statements and would have preferred that they not be issued."

He added, however, that the statements "are based upon the law of the land and I feel that we must make every effort to comply."

Wife of Ex-China Official Dies

HONG KONG (AP) — Hong Kong newspapers today announced the death of Mrs. Li Tsung-jen, wife of the former vice president of Nationalist China who defected with her husband to Communist China last July 15 after 15 years of self exile in the United States.

Both Communist and non-Communist papers carried death notices which they said Li had telegraphed from Peking. The notices said Mrs. Li died of cancer Monday and was buried Tuesday in Peking.

Before their return to the Chinese mainland, Li and his wife lived in Englewood Cliffs, N.J.

Soviet Ship Asks U.S. for a Loan

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Manila (AP) — The captain of the Russian research ship Vityaz said today he asked the U.S. Embassy in Manila for a loan to pay his ship's bills "because the United States and the Soviet Union main ain frien'dly relations."

Asked by newsmen whether he got the money, Capt. Yevgeny Avramenche said: "We are awaiting a reply."

The Vityaz entered Manila Bay last week after 3½ months at sea conducting scientific experiments in the Pacific under U.N. auspices.

"Our main problem was fresh water supply," said Avramenche. "We also wanted to buy fresh fruits."

The Vityaz has no agent in Manila since the Philippines does not have diplomatic relations with the Soviet Union.

New, Swift Air Cavalry Is Planned

By FRED S. HOFFMAN
AP Military Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Army planners are considering formation of new, swift air cavalry regiments and squadrons which could replace or supplement tank-equipped armored cavalry units.

Cavalry units are used chiefly for reconnaissance and screening missions. For example, three armored cavalry regiments are posted in West Germany along the Iron Curtain.

In event of an enemy probe, these regiments likely would be the first to make ground contact.

Air cavalry regiments, using helicopters for movement, would be considerably faster and would cover more ground in less time than armed cavalry outfits driving tanks and jeeps.

Creation of new air cavalry regiments and squadrons would represent a further extension of the air mobility concept.

The success of the 1st Cavalry Airmobile Division in Viet Nam has encouraged Pentagon officials to consider widening the extent of helicopter-mounted fighting units.

The new budget requests funds to convert one regular Army division, either infantry or airborne, to an air cavalry organization with about 428 helicopters.

Beyond that, there have been suggestions that still another air cavalry division may be formed by next year.

Ghosts Hover Over Meet of Communists

By HENRY S. BRADSHAW
MOSCOW (AP) — Two ghosts will be holding hands just outside the Kremlin next Tuesday when the Soviet Communist party opens a convention without any "fraternal delegate" from China.

The big question in Moscow today was whether the ghosts would manage to get inside and perhaps overshadow the party congress.

One will be the ghost of Joseph Stalin. Refusing to accept its banishment a decade ago on charges of tyranny, it stalks the Kremlin looking for the earthly comfort of public honor.

The other ghost will be that of the living Mao Tse-tung. His disciples hurled angry accusations at the Soviets Wednesday in rejecting an invitation to the congress. They charged a Soviet-American plot to dominate the world while abandoning the Communist cause in Viet Nam.

And they defended the memory of Stalin.

The Soviet press and radio ignored the Chinese blast today. It usually takes the Soviets a few days to decide how or even whether to react to such attacks.

This time, the few days' period will bring them up to the congress, with the problem of whether to answer the Chinese inside the meeting, and shift attention from the primary business of economics or to ignore them.

In the 17 months since Nikita S. Khrushchev was ousted, the Kremlin's new collective leadership has turned the other cheek to many Chinese blasts. In an effort to show statesmanlike leadership to other Communist parties, it has repeatedly called for the Chinese to return to unity—on Soviet terms that Peking says it can never accept.

The Soviets' last important public reaction was to a stiff Chinese attack last Nov. 11.

The Kremlin said five days later that Peking seemed to view the Soviet-Chinese dispute as irreconcilable. Wednesday's Chinese blast probably hardened that impression here.

Few informed observers here see any prospect of change in the bitter relations between Peking and Moscow so long as the present leadership remains in China.

El Salvador is the only Central American country with no Atlantic seaboard.

Twins Delivered 29 Days Apart

POMONA, Calif. (AP) — "I'm just glad it's over," said Mrs. Irby Pugh, 23.

"I'm delighted to have the babies, though. I was looking forward to having twins," she said Tuesday.

Mrs. Pugh didn't quite have twins, but she did have two children — delivered 29 days apart.

On Feb. 18 she gave birth five weeks prematurely to a 5-pound, 14-ounce girl. Last Saturday she returned to the hospital and was delivered of an 8-pound, 2-ounce boy by Caesarean section.

Her attending physician said Mrs. Pugh has a double uterus, and thus had a double pregnancy.

22 Million Hear Radio Free Europe

DETROIT (AP) — Radio Free Europe reaches more than 22 million people behind the Iron Curtain and gets an average of 1,000 letters a month from them says the president of U.S. Steel Corp., Leslie B. Worthington.

He told 50 business leaders that RFE has "become an intimate part of the daily lives of a populace highly disenchanted with the governing regimes."

Who says a '66 Ford rides quieter than Jean Bauchet's $12,000 Facel Vega?

Jean Bauchet!

Monsieur Jean Bauchet is an art collector and a connoisseur of fine automobiles. He understands that quiet in a car means quality. After driving a '66 Ford XL, he said, "They would not have to make Paris streets so smooth if all cars rode like this."

Ford's Quiet Man, who recently toured Europe demonstrating the exceptional quality of the '66 Ford to owners of some of the world's most expensive cars, here discusses a '66 Ford XL with Monsieur Bauchet outside of Monsieur Bauchet's Paris home.

"Such smoothness, such silence," says Jean Bauchet. "Your Ford is quieter, M'sieu."

Ford's quiet quality is the result of advanced engineering features like a revolutionary new frame that "tunes out" road vibrations. . . the strongest body ever on a Ford. But the quiet ride is just one of many reasons why you're ahead in a Ford all the way.

Only Ford in its class offers a Stereo-Sonic Tape Player option that brings you over an hour of uninterrupted music of your choice, on each self-threading, snap-in tape cartridge. • Magic Doorgate for wagons (standard equipment) that opens out like a door and down like a tailgate, depending on whether you are loading kids or cargo. • Silent-Flo Ventilation (on 4-door hardtops) that brings in fresh air and gets rid of smoke and stale air with the windows closed. • Even Ford's keys are special—they're double-edged so they fit in locks either side up. Visit your Ford Dealer and test-drive a '66 from Ford. See how many ways Ford can put you ahead in '66.

Democratic Club Fight Seems Over
LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A bitter, two-month struggle over control of the Arkansas Young Democrats Clubs is over today, with a slate of officers backed by immediate past president Sam Boyce of Newport at the helm.

Jack Files of North Little Rock was elected president of the YDC after a reported compromise with anti-Boyce forces at the state convention Sunday broke down around noon. The compromise would have divided the offices between factions headed by Boyce and Files and by the new president's opponent, Fred Pickett, an attorney of Mean, giving Boyce forces the major posts.

Boyce said the word to end the compromise came from Gov. Orval Faubus. The governor's son, Farrell, said his father had not broken up the compromise.

"They offered us a compromise and then reneged. Then they offered us a piece of cheese and we rejected it," said Richard Earl Griffin of Harrison, a spokesman for Pickett forces.

My Parents Don't Understand Me...
Dear Helen: I left home to go and stay with my boy friend's parents, and have written to my folks telling them I am nothing but trouble and they should forget me.

You see I am going steady (or as we say, going around) with this boy who came over every night after school so I could help him with his studies.

My mother and dad didn't approve of my teaching and helping him and said he should study by himself, and get out with other kids more. They said a girl should have more time to herself, and he was leaning on me too much.

I'm over 17 and I think I love this boy. We are planning to get married when we graduate and he gets a job. My folks think we are too young and want us to wait until we're sure.

Anyway, the arguments got too much, so I went to my steady's house, but I probably can't stay there long.

I think my parents don't understand me. Please help. -- Broken-Hearted.

Only one thing bothers me. My fiancée's father feels that after we're married the mother should still come first. We think that the wife or husband, as the case would be, should be first in the eyes of the other mate.

Both Parties Lashed by Union Boss

By NEIL GILBRIDE WASHINGTON (AP) —AFL-CIO President George Meany declared the independence of the labor federation from both major political parties today.

"We can't buy either party," he said.

In his strongest indication of a break with the Democrats Meany said: "It is quite obvious if we were looking around for a party to adopt and control, we don't want the Democratic party because they can't deliver."

Meany, who has been angrily feuding with the Johnson administration and Democrats in Congress over what he calls failure to deliver their 1961 campaign promises to organized labor, said he was replying to critics who say labor has too

Seems Dodgers Won't Sign Star Hurlers

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—The Los Angeles fans who had been clamoring for the Dodgers to make a trade for a hurler were disappointed last winter when the only deal the world champions made was for Detroit Pitcher Phil Regan.

But the transaction that sent utility infielder Dick Tracewski to the Tigers has taken on added significance this spring because Dodger stars Sandy Koufax and Don Drysdale are holding out.

And Drysdale reaffirmed that he and Koufax definitely will be among the missing this season unless they are given a substantial raise.

"Buzie is right—we won't sign for the figures they've offered," Drysdale told newsmen Wednesday. "And we believe them when they say they're not going to raise their offer."

The day before, Dodger General Manager E.J. (Buzie) Bavasi told newsmen:

"Unless I am naive and have been taken in, I have to believe they won't sign."

Drysdale also told newsmen that the Dodgers' top offers have been $85,000 for him and $100,000 for Koufax, instead of higher figures reported by their attorney.

Time Is Out for Many Old Cage Pros

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The old standards were played on the organ as always. And out on the court three other old standbys also played—for the last time in Madison Square Garden.

But for player-coach Richie Guerin and Cliff Hagan of the St. Louis Hawks there still are the National Basketball Association playoffs before they finish their careers.

For Tom Gola of the New York Knickerbockers it was the end—the end of a brilliant individual chapter in basketball, one which saw the Philadelphia native make All-America three times in LaSalle, play on the NBA championship team and be named to five NBA All-Star teams.

Gola may be walking away from basketball but not from competition—he is seeking election as a Pennsylvania state representative on the Republican ticket.

"It's not bad now," the 10-year pro veteran said Tuesday night when asked how he felt, knowing that he had played his last game. The Knicks, last in the East, beat the Hawks 128-125 in the final regular season NBA game with rookie Dick Van Arsdale scoring 24 points and getting the key basket that put the Knicks ahead to stay, 122-121.

"When I first had to make up my mind to quit, I felt sad about it."

"I think the early years are the most exciting of a man's career," Gola continued. "As the years go on it becomes a job. Mentally it's tougher than physically. You can go out there and run around, but you don't get up for a game like you used to."

If the later years weren't too much fun for Gola, the early ones must have been a ball.

Mantle Has Same Sign of Pain

By MIKE RATHER
Associated Press Sports Writer
FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (AP)—Mickey Mantle dug his spikes into the dirt, pumped his bat, and, as the pitch broke down and over the plate, took a half swing that immediately left his face contorted in pain.

It's the same sign that has been on Mantle's face many times during his 15-year major league career. But in addition to the serpent-shaped scar on the right shoulder, that still prevents him from lashing out at a pitch, Mantle is carrying an additional burden this year.

Som e eight weeks have slipped by since his operation and Mantle still doesn't know if he will be able to play this season. Ask him and he says frankly:

"I can't really answer that. I don't know yet whether I can throw."

He hasn't even tried yet. "I still hurts too much and I can't bring my arm back far enough," he said. "It's still too stiff."

And that still leaves the pride of the New York Yankees a question mark with the season opener only three weeks away. But Mantle remains optimistic.

"Don't go saying I'm frustrated," he said pointedly. "I'm not feeling that way. If I'm not ready when the season opens, I will be frustrated. But I think I can make it. I should be able to play before we leave spring training."

"Actually I think I'm a little ad of schedule," he went on. "When I was up at Mayo Clinic they told me I'd probably lose the first month of spring training. But I wasn't expected to be able to do anything down here, but I'm swinging."

The swing is not at this point, however, the swing Mantle is known for. Right-handed it's the same. But left-handed Mantle still cannot unleash a full swing. Even a half swing brings the pain.

That apparently stems from the operation, which unveiled a more serious problem than was at first anticipated, requiring the tendons to be cut in the shoulder, then refitted. Now, in order to swing naturally left-handed and to be able to throw, Mantle must stretch the tendons and bring the arm farther back than he can at this point.

Celtics Lose Opening Game in Playoffs

By C. C. MCGILLICUDDY
Associated Press Sports Writer
BOSTON (AP)—"We came to play and they came to win," said Boston Celtics Coach Red Auerbach after his defending National Basketball Association champions got off on the wrong foot in the Eastern Division semifinal playoffs.

The comment summed up the series opener after the Royals outthrew the favored Celtics 107-103 to send the series to Cincinnati for the 2nd game Saturday night with the Royals holding a 1-0 advantage.

The Western Division semifinal playoff opens tonight in Baltimore with the Bullets getting the home-court advantage for their meeting with the St. Louis Hawks.

"The money game, baby, we won the money game," cried big Wayne Embry as the Royals entered their dressing room after upsetting the Celtics. The underdog Cincinnati team seemed as surprised as the Royals at the 9,510 that they had taken Boston much easier than the score indicated.

Royals' Coach Jack McMahon credited his defense with the victory, as did Jerry Lucas, one of the heroes of the big victory.

Although Lucas and Oscar Robertson tied for game scoring honors with 26 points apiece, Lucas was far from happy with his performance.

"Oscar and I just weren't hitting our shots," he said. "The defense saved us. If the two of us had been hitting, it wouldn't even have been a ballgame."

McMahon thought Lucas' play was sensation, explaining, "his timing hasn't been better all season."

Auerbach felt it was a game where everything went right for the Royals and nothing went right for the Celtics.

"Everything we did in the first quarter was wrong," he said reflecting on Boston's sorry performance in which it scored only 17 points.

"We were just as bad in the third quarter," he added. "We cut the lead to three points and then we gave up the ball three times without taking a shot."

Saturday Looms Black for British

DONCASTER, England (AP)—A Black Saturday looms for England's legalized bookies following the victory of the American-owned and bred Riot Act in the Lincolnshire Handicap.

Riot Act, owned by Mrs. John F. C. Bryce's Mill River Stud at South Arlington, Va., won the one-mile Lincolnshire Wednesday as the 8-1 favorite in a packed field of 49 horses.

The Lincolnshire, on which the Irish Sweepstakes was based, also was the first half in what is known as the Spring Double, linking the Lincolnshire and the Aintree Grand Steeplechase.

The Grand National is scheduled for Saturday and leading bookies said they would hurt badly if either Highland Wedding or Freddie win. They said they had a heavy play coupling Riot Act with both Highland Wedding and Freddie.

Riot Act, a 4-year-old chestnut colt by Ribot out of Rave Notice, won the Lincolnshire by half a length over Le Garcon under the skillful riding of 52-year-old jockey Scobie Breasley.

"We got off first and had a beautiful passage," Breasley said after the race described by many as more like an old-fashioned cavalry charge.

Col. Billy Smith, the starter, had a difficult time getting the big field off on the 75-foot turf track. He got them off, more or less, in one line although Chestergate, Karelia and Foxford Boy virtually were left. Foxford Boy was kicked and took no part in the race.

Clay to Retire If He Loses to Chuvalo

TORONTO (AP)—A suddenly modest Cassius Clay says he'll retire if George Chuvalo strips him of his heavyweight title next Tuesday night.

"I'd have to retire," he said Wednesday after sparring eight rounds in preparation for his 15-round scrap against the Canadian champion from Toronto.

"Once I lose, that's it."

But there seems little chance of that happening. Clay, is a lopsided favorite.

One Toronto bookie said a few small operators are taking bets with Clay a 6-1 favorite.

"But the big bookies, and I mean the really big guys, want no part of it," he said.

Murray Goodman of New York, a spokesman for Main Bout Inc., which owns the closed-circuit television rights, said 39 sites in the United States and Canada have been lined up so far for showings. He estimated total capacity at 210,000 and said a gross of $500,000 is likely to be added to the promotional pot.

There will be no live TV of the fight, which begins at 10:30 p.m., EST, but it will be carried live on the Canadian Broadcast Corp. radio network.

Clay, who usually brags about his fighting ability and predicts his knockout rounds, has been surprisingly quiet and modest since setting up training camp here last Friday.

He sat in his dressing room and explained why.

"The people here in Canada were nice enough to have me. I'm fighting one of their boys. He's a nice boy and I have nothing against him."

He said he pops off only because he's the target of criticism because of his religious beliefs. Clay is a member of the Black Muslims.

He was the object of considerable criticism over his recent remarks concerning the U.S. role in Viet Nam. He made them at the time his draft board was reclassifying him and making him eligible for Army duty.

"I got a lot of letters after my Viet Nam remarks," he said. "They said I was yellow. I was a coward. But they didn't leave any address. I read them all and just laughed."

Red set April 4 as the date for trial of a lawsuit challenging the election commission's authority to buy the voting machines with county general funds.

Infants' Vitamin Not Harmful for Adults

BY WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—If pyridoxine (vitamin B-6) is given only to infants, as you said in a recent column, would its inclusion in multiple vitamin tablets be harmful to adults?

A—This vitamin is found abundantly in most diets. Vitamin B-6 deficiency is occasionally seen in children and causes irritability and convulsions. It is very rare in adults but has been reported as being associated with some forms of anemia. The average adult requires about 1.5 milligrams of this vitamin daily. Since larger amounts are not stored in the body but are promptly eliminated, no harm would result from taking it in excess of your requirement.

Q—What is rutin? What is its value to the body?

A—Rutin or vitamin P is useful in some persons who have a tendency to bruise easily because of increased fragility of their capillaries. One patient who had repeated hemorrhages in the whites of her eyes was greatly benefited by taking this vitamin.

Q—My father, 84, was told by his doctor that he had pre-senile atherosclerosis. Will this affect his mind?

A—Atherosclerosis and arteriosclerosis are fancy names for hardening of the arteries. If at 84 your father has pre-senile hardening he is indeed fortunate. While arteriosclerosis is a generalized process that occurs throughout the body, it tends to damage some organs more than others in different victims. When, as often happens, the arteries of the brain are affected, the victim becomes forgetful and may suffer a change of personality, especially if the arteriosclerosis has led to small strokes.

Many drugs have been recommended in the treatment of arteriosclerosis in general. Acetazolamide and injections of procaine have been recommended for arteriosclerosis of the brain but the results cannot be guaranteed. They may delay the progress of the disease but they cannot restore tissues that are already damaged.

Q—I am very nervous. My doctor is giving me Serax. Is it habit-forming? Are there any bad side effects?

A—Oxazepam (Serax) is a new sedative. Although it is said to be especially useful for sobering up after an alcoholic binge, it has many other uses. There have been no reports of habituation. It should not be taken by persons with high blood pressure. Too large a dose may cause panting, jaundice and dizziness.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of this paper. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Plans New to Cut Own Funeral Costs

LCNDON (AP)—The Duke of Norfolk, who organized Sir Winston Churchill's funeral, has completed plans to cut the cost of his own death.

His lawyers won approval in the High Court Tuesday for a settlement designed to avoid or postpone death duties on his real estate and other holdings worth more than 3 million pounds ($8.3 million). The 57-year-old duke has no son, and the heir to his title and estate is his cousin, Lord Howard, who is 80.

If the duke died before Lord Howard, the estate would face two quick bites of death duties which in Britain can total more than half of what a person leaves.

Under the complicated settlement, Lord Howard renounced his interest in the estate, but provision was made for the duke's four daughters and Lord Howard's children.

The still, in proportion to size, has the longest legs of any known bird.

2 Highway Projects in Hempstead

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Highway Department is working in some form or another on every foot of interstate highway mileage allocated to Arkansas. Chief Engineer Ward Goodman said today.

Goodman said the department has plans to put at least two more major interstate projects under construction contract before July 1.

These are a 5½-mile segment of Interstate 30 between Social Hill and Rockport south of Malvern and an approach to the Arkansas River Bridge at Fort Smith.

Goodman discussed the interstate program at the monthly meeting of the Arkansas Highway Commission.

The commission adopted a new statement of policy on acquisition of right-of-way for secondary road projects.

The statement said that local governments should be responsible for acquiring right of way. Commissioner John Harsh of Magnolia said this simply clarified the existing policy.

The commission programmed a number of road improvement projects including these, listed by county with estimated costs:

OUACHITA — Resurfacing 9.92 miles of U. S. 79 eastward from the Columbia County line, $121,300.

CLARK — Resurfacing 8.73 miles of U. S. 67 in the Gurdon area, $98,800.

POLK — Surfacing 14.7 miles of Arkansas 246, $222,400.

SEBASTIAN — Resurfacing two miles of U. S. 71 from Hill Creek to Dodson Ave. in Port Smith, $26,100.

ASHLEY — Resurfacing 8.30 miles of U. S. 82 from Montrose westward, $108,800.

ARKANSAS — Widening and resurfacing of six miles of Arkansas 1 from DeWitt southward, $75,200.

SEVIER — Resurfacing 7.95 miles of U. S. 71 from De Queen to its junction with U. S. 70, $93,000.

An Irishman Would Like to Clear Up Misconceptions Folks Have About the Irish

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Being Irish is a pleasure, not an industry.

Now that St. Patrick's Day has come and gone, I'd like to clear up some misconceptions about the Irish — as far as I have known them.

Some years ago, in a burst of youthful perception, I wrote in exclamatory affection a favorable piece about the Irish.

Answering the question "What is it to be Irish?" this was a point I made:

"On St. Patrick's Day, to be Irish is to know more glory, adventure, magic, victory, exultation, gratitude and gladness than any other man can experience in a lifetime."

A lonesome friend said, "Well, that's very nice, but the year has 365 days. How does it feel to be Irish the other 364 days?"

well, some of the Irish I've known are like this:

Life is their favorite challenge but death is not their worst enemy.

They celebrate birth as they do departure. They are proud of a child being born and aren't particularly sad if a relative over 80 yields a final breath. They know they'll meet him in heaven.

Some regard the Irish as too brash on earth, and perhaps they are. Their conduct, however, reflects a confidence in heaven.

But sure as they are of eternity, nothing breaks an Irish family's heart more than if one of their young ones is called to God sooner than they want to let him go.

Performance is the flower of the Irishman's desire.

Joy is part of his way. He is fantastically loyal but his biggest quarrels are among his own.

He is generous. Since he has never owned his own country completely, he will lend his shirt to anybody — and borrow the other fellow's coat right back.

In psychological terms, the Irishman is a manic-depressive and a paranoic. He joys and weeps with or without reason and secretly feels the world mistakes him. He laughs in sorrow and sorrows in laughter. Well, to wrap it up, the way it feels to be Irish 365 days out of the year, including St. Patrick's Day, is to enjoy a gossip with immortality, like a child talking to a forever father.

1st Color Friday
Bastrop Visit
No Weather Map

Tomorrow The Star will introduce color for the first time in the history of southwest Arkansas newspapers. The advertiser to whom the honor goes is Hope Auto Co., with a Ford display in black and red.

We thank Hope Auto Co. for the confidence it places in the ability of this house to do an acceptable job. But our new "airchild rotary offset press" was engineered specifically for exacting color printing, and we took the precaution of making a test run on color last night - with excellent results.

Thirty years ago The Star experimented with color, but it was impractical on an old-style flatbed press. Back yonder we had the best flatbed pressman in Arkansas, R. J. Pearce, formerly with the Pine Bluff Commercial and the Blytheville Courier News. Mr. Pearce devised a system of rollers and angle bars to feed the paper through the press twice in a continuous operation to pick up the black ink first and the red on the second trip.

We had a local foundry build the attachment Mr. Pearce designed, and we made a couple of experimental runs. It put color in the newspaper all right - but you could never be sure exactly where the color would hit.

But tomorrow we will present Ford in metropolitan color printing, at high speed and in perfect register - meaning that the color is placed so exactly you can overprint four times without the eye detecting more than a single impression.

This is absolutely necessary when you get into four color process printing, as with photographs - for each color is added to the paper in a separate unit of the press, and of course the impressions must be coordinated, or "in register," to make it appear that the picture was made with a single printing. You've seen poor color printing where one or more of the colors was "out of register" - but our new press has the controls necessary to prevent this.

And one of these days we'll demonstrate with the first full-color photograph in southwest Arkansas history. But owing to the unavoidable expense of a four-plate production to get a single picture it isn't likely an advertiser will pick up the tab, so it will be a news picture "on the house."

While we were here for the test run on color, Managing Editor Paul H. Jones and your writer will miss the main event Friday. We are leaving this afternoon to spend Friday in the plant of the Bastrop (La.) Enterprise, a paper which converted to the offset printing process a couple of years before we did.

Bastrop has replaced its hot-metal linotypes with automatic typewriters known as Just-O-Writers, and photographic machines producing advertising type faces; and we are facing the same switch for The Star. Our first problem was to learn operation of the rotary offset press. Then we had to solve the technique of getting local pictures into offset production. And finally color printing. Now that these problems are behind us we can move on to the less exacting job of switching to new kinds of machines to set up news and advertising.

When we do this our conversion to offset will be complete. We'll be out of the metal foundry business and into photography all the way - a faster, more efficient, more pleasant way of newspaper life.

This is the last week for the Weather Map in The Star. We have cancelled The Associated Press' overnight mail package of Wirephoto pictures including the map which was supposed to come in from Dallas each morning. The trouble is, the package is generally delayed until the late afternoon mail.

Wirephoto and the Weather Map, therefore, will have to wait until a time when we can afford to install a Wirephoto telegraph receiver here in the office, delivering map and pictures that are brand new and unpublished anywhere. Paying money for anything the morning papers have already published is nonsense.

Wide-ranging reorganization of U.S. forces in Europe will result if President De Gaulle carries through on his demands for changes in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization military setup. Fighting forces affected by American refusal to accept French command of all foreign military personnel on French soil will be primarily Air Force units, but supply lines which now for the most part run through France also will have to be relocated. Newsmap shows present deployment of land, air and sea forces in the European NATO countries and Spain. Also indicated is approximate total of U.S. military personnel in each country. In addition, the U.S. 6th Fleet patrols the Mediterranean but is not based in any one country.

At Least 21 Deaths Caused by Blizzard

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The second blizzard in a month had broken up today, but it left the north central and Plains states buried under massive snows. Schools and roads were closed and at least 21 persons were dead.

Nebraska counted 11 dead from the early spring storm. Minnesota and Iowa each had three dead. South Dakota and Wyoming had two deaths each. The storm hurled a one-two punch of sleet and snow at most of the area. The ice ripped down power lines and powerful winds stacked the snow into impassable drifts.

Travel was virtually halted over the area. Four men were found dead in a car stalled just east of Howells in northeastern Nebraska Wednesday. Police said they had suffocated.

A man driving a snowplow found two brothers dead in a stalled truck near Greeley, Neb. Minneapolis-St. Paul, part of the area which escaped the Dakotas-Montana blizzard three weeks ago, was in the eye of this week's storm. The area lay under 14 inches of snow, with winds whipping drifts to 4 feet. Much of the Twin Cities business was paralyzed Wednesday. Of the more than one million persons in the two cities, there are about 700,000 workers and most were unable to get to their jobs, according to an unofficial survey of some employers.

Courts, schools and business places were closed and an estimated $1 million business was lost for the day. Bus lines and taxicabs were unable to operate until late Wednesday night and the Minneapolis-St. Paul Airport was closed from 3:30 a.m. to 10:30 p.m.

Norfolk in northeastern Nebraska had 10 inches of snow on top of a 2-inch layer of slush and ice. Many areas of the town of 15,000 were without electricity for more than a day.

Downed power lines also cut electricity in dozens of smaller Nebraska communities.

Cattlemen had headed weather warnings and their animals had been ordered into sheltered areas called "maternity wards." The loss was slight.

Schools were closed by the hundreds. The University of Minnesota in Minneapolis closed Wednesday for the first time in its history.

Minnesota Gov. Karl F. Roalvaag shared the fate of thousands of motorists - his car got stuck in a driveway. Drifts up to 10 feet isolated some sections of northwestern Iowa. Spencer, a town of 9,000, was without power since Tuesday night.

Russia-China Quarrel Has Reached Stage Where Each Must Change West Relations

An AP News Analysis
By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) - The increasingly angry quarrel between Russia and Red China has now reached the stage where each country must consider radical changes in its relations with the West.

The turmoil in the Communist bloc exceeds even that of the Atlantic Alliance where France is pursuing a policy of independent action strikingly similar to the self assertion of Red China against Russia.

The Johnson administration is under heavy pressure from its China policy critics to find some way to ease tensions and improve relations between Peking and Washington.

But any real change in this relationship in the near future is ruled out by the experts, even those among the critics. All recognize that in China's present attitude of bitter political hostility to the outside world, the United States is slated for some years yet to play the role of archvillain.

Indeed the changes resulting from the political turbulence now buffeting Communist and Western powers alike could result in some severe embarrassment to President Johnson and the United States.

One result may be to increase support for a movement certain to arise in the next U.N. General Assembly to make Communist China a member. U.S. officials would not be surprised if a majority of the United Nations' 117 members voted to admit the Red Chinese.

Johnson administration officials show no intention yet of changing American policy in any important respect toward either China or Russia. It is true, however, that on some issues the administration's differences with its critics are more on timing than on substance.

Many recognize that the United States eventually will have to establish relations with Red China and work with it in the United Nations and open up trade as much as possible. But they do not think the time is now and they do not see any basis for bargaining to protect America's interests so long as Peking's antagonism to Washington is unrelieved by any interest in better relations.

Headstart Grant to Ouachita

30,000 Billboards in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - An inventory which is part of the Highway Beautification Act shows there are about 30,000 billboards and outdoor advertising signs in Arkansas, an official said Wednesday.

Ward Goodman, chief Arkansas Highway Department engineer, said the billboards and signs were counted along the interstate and primary highways. The total is smaller than he anticipated, Goodman said.

The count doesn't include signs on the premises of business firms, he said.

Cong Morale Ripped by Big Bombers

By THOMAS A. REEDY

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) - America's B52 bombers in 191 massive raids on South Viet Nam have ruined old Viet Cong jungle hideouts and sharply reduced the Communist will and ability to fight.

This conclusion was reached today in official quarters after a detailed study of the raids which started last June and now are almost daily occurrences.

The assaults average 10 B52s from Guam to a mission. Each carries 50 750-pound bombs, a total of 375,000 pounds of steel and explosives for each flight.

When the raids started, about 1,000 Viet Cong were defecting each month to the Saigon government forces. The number now is double that. Many told interrogators the big bombers were making life intolerable for the guerrillas, wrecking their rest havens and hospitals, their hitherto safe tunnels and caves, and destroying precious food caches. Some ground sweeps by troops have substantiated these reports.

Thus the military chalks up a two-fold value for the assaults: The tangible that can be seen and the intangible effect on enemy morale.

Betting Slowed in Little Rock

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Betting

here on horse races has been cut in half during a two-year police crackdown on bookies, Police Chief R. E. Briens said Wednesday. Briens said he made the estimate by comparing the number of names on route slips seized from persons arrested for soliciting bets.

Woman Dies in Farm House Fire

CLARENDON, Ark. (AP) - Mrs. Hattie Bordner, 70, was killed Wednesday in a farm house fire near Holly Grove in Monroe County.

Burned in the fire were Mrs. Bordner's son-in-law, Joe Diamond, 57, and his wife, Mrs. Gussie Mae Diamond, 49. Cause of the fire was not determined.

Rural Group Going After More Money

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - The Arkansas Rural Education Association, formed this year in the heat of a battle over compulsory school consolidation sent another of its weapons in another direction.

With the consolidation proposal all but dead for the next two years, AREA set out Wednesday to get smaller districts bigger shares of state money.

Hershel Lee of Swifton, AREA president, said "our battle with the AEA is over for awhile, but we have many things still to be done."

The Arkansas Education Association proposed that districts with fewer than 400 pupils be forced to consolidate. It would have accomplished this by getting voter approval for the proposal in the November general election.

The proposal was virtually killed when an amendment was approved which would have set the limit at 2,000 pupils.

On the money distribution, George Ledbetter of Farmington said that 12 school superintendents from larger districts prevented a distribution formula which would have given more money to the smaller schools.

"The reason we don't get more is because we don't ask for it," Ledbetter said. AREA officials voted to make the organization permanent with an executive secretary to be paid $10,000 a year. A committee was set up to screen applicants.

Household Gets Bigger by Twos

POTTSVILLE, Pa. (AP) - The

Knittle household gets bigger by the twos.

For the third time in 10 years Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Knittle have become the parents of twins.

The newest pair, girls, was born in Memorial Hospital Tuesday.

The first set of twins, Harry III and Sandra, arrived in 1956, and a second set, Donald and Karen, in 1962.

Knittle, 32, is a driver for a dairy company.

Johnson Ready With More Civil Rights

WASHINGTON (AP) - President Johnson is ready to propose new civil rights legislation dealing with housing, schools and public facilities.

The administration's proposed civil rights act of 1966, which faces a tough election-year battle in Congress, has been on Johnson's desk for at least two weeks. There has been no explanation of his delay in transmitting it, along with a message, to Capitol Hill.

Johnson and Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach have given several members of Congress private previews of the bill. And once it's submitted, Chairman Emanuel Celler of the House Judiciary Committee is expected to call immediate hearings, at which Katzenbach will be the leadoff administration witness.

Should the bill become law - either in its present form or as is more likely, in an altered version - it would be the third package of civil rights legislation enacted by Congress in as many years.

The 1964 Civil Rights Act forbade racial discrimination in places of public accommodation and put new teeth in laws against discrimination in voting and public education. The Voting Rights Act has resulted in the first-time registration of more than 100,000 Southern Negroes. Both laws have been upheld in their key provisions by the Supreme Court.

According to sources who have seen the latest proposal, its chief provisions run along these lines:

Housing: Racial discrimination in the sale or rental of all housing - old and new, and even if privately financed - would be banned.

While the attorney general could bring suit when a pattern and practice of discrimination, the normal remedy would be for the prospective buyer or renter to bring suit against the seller or landlord accused of discrimination.

Such legislation, which is expected to stir sharp controversy in Congress, would theoretically open up previously all-white suburbs to Negroes, assuming the Negroes could afford to move.

Juries: The administration proposal would be directed at both state and federal jury systems in an effort to need the all-white juries that prevail in many parts of the South.

Where there was evidence of a violation, the Justice Department could ask a federal court to establish and enforce non-discriminatory jury selection standards for the offending circuit or county.

Intimidation: This provision would make it a federal crime - with penalties graduated to fit the nature of a specific crime - to harm or intimidate persons attempting to desegregate public facilities.

Artificial Heart Valves Working

LITTLE ROCK (AP) - Eugene H. Beavers of Clinton, 56, was released Wednesday after surgery which gave him artificial heart valves. His reaction: "I'm ready for some fishing."

Beavers underwent the operation nine days ago, and it was said to be the first performed in the state at a private, general hospital. The operation was performed at Arkansas Baptist hospital.

A defective valve in Beavers' heart was replaced with one made of stainless steel and soft silicone and plastic material.

501 Cong Die in Big Display of Firepower

By EDWIN G. WHITE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) - An unrelenting display of firepower from ships, planes and artillery cost the Viet Cong 501 killed in the past 24 hours while U.S. Fighter-bombers caused new havoc along North Viet Nam's truck and rail routes. Allied officials reported today.

On Saigon's outskirts, South Vietnamese troops and planes mauled and scattered a 700-man Communist force early today after it daringly attacked a government armored regiment's headquarters at Go Dau within gunshot of a large American troop concentration.

The Reds made off with four American-made tanks in the raid on the headquarters 12 miles north of Saigon, but Vietnamese forces destroyed two and recaptured the others. A spokesman said 71 Viet Cong were killed.

The largest toll was claimed by South Korean forces in Operation Pierce Tiger 285 miles northeast of Saigon. Korean officers said 214 Communists were killed, 117 captured and 281 persons detained Wednesday in the central coastal rice lands around Qui Nhon. It was the largest Korean operation to date.

The tide of battle also was costly to the Allies.

The U.S. military command reported 80 Americans killed, 816 wounded and 17 missing or captured in the fighting last week. This compared with 100 killed, 808 wounded and eight missing or captured the week before.

The number of South Vietnamese killed rose from 131 to 232 last week but the number of missing declined from 97 to 73. Vietnamese wounded are not disclosed.

Communist losses reported by the Allies declined sharply during the week of March 13-19, with 627 killed and 59 captured compared with 1,224 killed and 106 captured the week before.

U.S. Air Force jets carried the air war to North Viet Nam's Muga Pass for the third straight day. A spokesman said they left the strategic highway to the Ho Chi Minh Trail clogged with the wreckage of 19 trucks, five of which blew up. This indicated they were carrying munitions, an Air Force spokesman said.

"Mama's Baby Boy" is by Charles George and is a three act comedy which exceeds the speed limit in laughs and ludicrous situations until the audience is almost weak from howling.

The characters are: Sharon Collins, Donnie McIver, Ronnie Melver, Linda Walden, Judy Womack, Phillip O'Rourke, Joyce Jones, Diane Rosenbaum, Pat Ware, Eddie Muncey, and Carolyn Adams.

The special numbers will be by Judy and Diane Crider and "The Dead Beats." The admission will be 35c for students and 50c for adults. The public is invited. Guernsey's buses will not run.

Court Hands Poll Tax a Final Blow

WASHINGTON (AP) - The Supreme Court declared Virginia's poll tax unconstitutional today. The 6-3 decision was announced by Justice William O. Douglas.

In two other states - Alabama and Texas - federal courts have held the poll tax unconstitutional. The poll tax still is used in Mississippi and Vermont.

Douglas declared that "a state violates the equal protection clause of the 14th Amendment whenever it makes the influence of the voter or payment of any fee an electoral standard."

Palominos to Pull Wagon Across Country

THESE PALOMINO MULES, HELD BY ODUS Hodson of Bella Vista Village, are scheduled to pull a covered wagon from Arkla Village at Emmet to Bella Vista Village. It is figured the trip will take 20 days.

THE TREK STARTS FROM ARKLA VILLAGE at Emmet met on the afternoon of April 3. Schedule calls for overnight stops in Prescott, Gurdon, Arkadelphia, Bismarck and Hot Springs.

IT IS HOPED THAT EVERYONE WILL TURN OUT to see these very unusual mules and the covered wagon.

Backing them up are "OOVE UNITS" — construction gangs building roads and schools and medical team giving aid to civilians as well as soldiers.

Stationed at Qui Nhon, a central Viet Nam port on the South China Sea, is South Korea's famed Tiger Division which has chalked up a notable battle record since it landed here last fall.

"We have trained for the weather and the climate of Viet Nam and we have learned the Viet Cong tactics," said Maj. Gen. Myung Shin-chaie, commander of Korean forces in Viet Nam.

Capt. Kwon Joon-taek, a member of the Tiger Division, said his men were especially trained in night fighting, at which the Communists have long excelled.

"The Viet Cong are good, but we are better," he said.

The Korean marines are stationed at Tuy Hoa, a sandy windswept wasteland in south central Viet Nam not far from Viet Cong territory.

"When we go into battle, we have the advantage of tough training and the highest morale," said Lt. Chung Jae-won of the marines' Blue Dragon outfit.

At Di An, 10 miles northeast of Saigon, are the self-styled "doves", a 2,500-man construction outfit that has been repairing roads and bridges, setting up medical dispensaries and playgrounds and carrying out other projects to show the Vietnamese that Allied troops are their friends.

"The most important part of our civil aid program is the treatment of the people themselves," said Brig. Gen. Cho Moon-whan, who set up the Korean installation at Di An.

"Touching an infant, giving candy to a young boy, showing respect for the aged — these things mean more than a million dollars in a foreign aid program."

When the Vietnamese first ventured into the Koreans' medical clinics, many were distrustful and unfriendly.

"Now, however, we have gained their friendship and trust," Cho said.

The third phase of the Korean mission in Viet Nam is at Vung Tau, about 50 miles south of Saigon, where a hospital has been set up in a rambling French colonial building.

"We feel that medicine is better than bullets to win over the Vietnamese people," said Col. Song Ik-hoon, commander of the 1st Koreana Mobile Army Surgical Unit. "In medicine there is no boundary."

At the evacuation hospital 27 doctors and 33 nurses staff an establishment that includes an air-conditioned operating room, X-ray section, laboratory and buildings equipped with 400 beds.

Civilians as well as military personnel are treated.

Beef Round Steak Takes Easily To Devil's Flavor

Cooking terms come by their meanings quite naturally. As an example, "to devil" a dish means to make it tart.

This does not mean serving it hot, as some novice might be led to think, but rather to make it hot by the use of certain seasonings. Prepared or dried mustard is often used, so is paprika, red or black pepper. Vinegar is used to make it tart.

Beef round steak is compatible with these flavors, explains noted meat authority Robn Staggs so it's especially delicious when deviled. Onions and tomatoes enhance the flavor more.

A less tender cut, round steak must be cooked slowly either on top of the range or in the oven. Make certain the cooking utensil is covered tightly during this procedure.

Gay Covers Add Zip

by Mary Brooks Pleken
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Velveteen, corduroy, man-made satins and velvets are all so beautiful in color and give such satisfactory wear that you can well afford them. And they make colorful cushion covers.

Mrs. Pleken

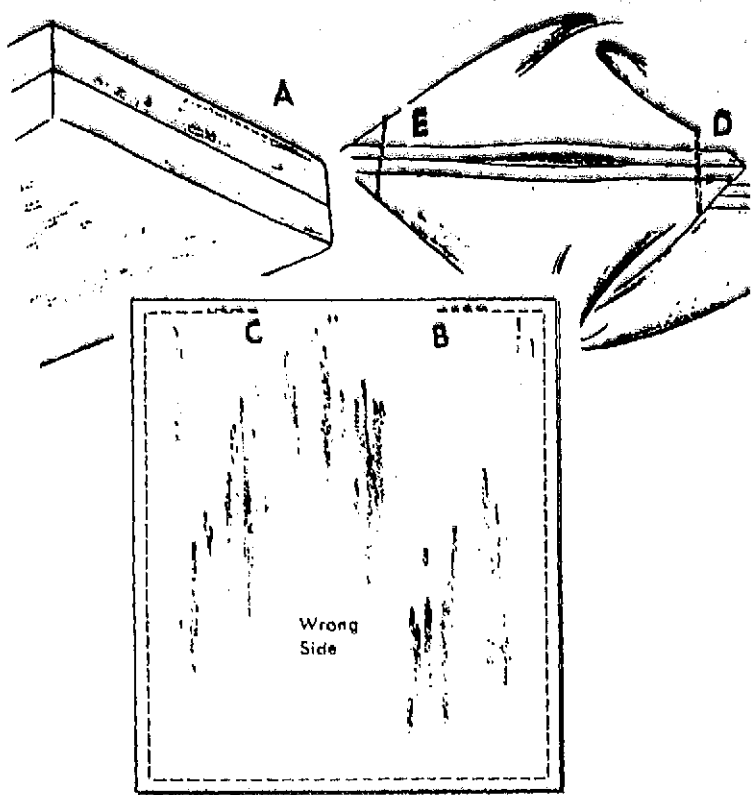

Choose several colors having sharp contrast so as to give real zip to your couch, day bed, chair or window seat.

Many women make a stack of brightly colored cushions to use as seats when there is more company than chairs in the house.

Box Cover: To make a box cover such as we show, cut two pieces of fabric large enough to cover the sides and half the depth of the edge, plus 3/4-inch seams, as shown in A.

Lay these two pieces together right sides turned in and lengthwise grain to grain. See B. Begin with a 3/4-inch seam, stitch a scant fourth of the distance B to C. Stitch back over this line to C. Then stitch to the corner, pivot, turn and continue to the next corner. Repeat until all four corners and the outer edge, except the opening, have been stitched. When you arrive at B, pivot and stitch over the line for 3 or 4 inches. This will prevent the seam tearing when you insert the pillow. Press all seams open. Reason for a 3/4-inch seam allowance is that you do not want the cover to be too tight over the cushion.

Measure the depth of your cushion. Fold the corners diagonally as at D, and E, folding each corner true. Pin all four corners and stitch twice across each as shown in D and E.

right color with a tassel for each end and the your cushions so they will stay stacked when not in use.

Try Meyer's new breadbox.

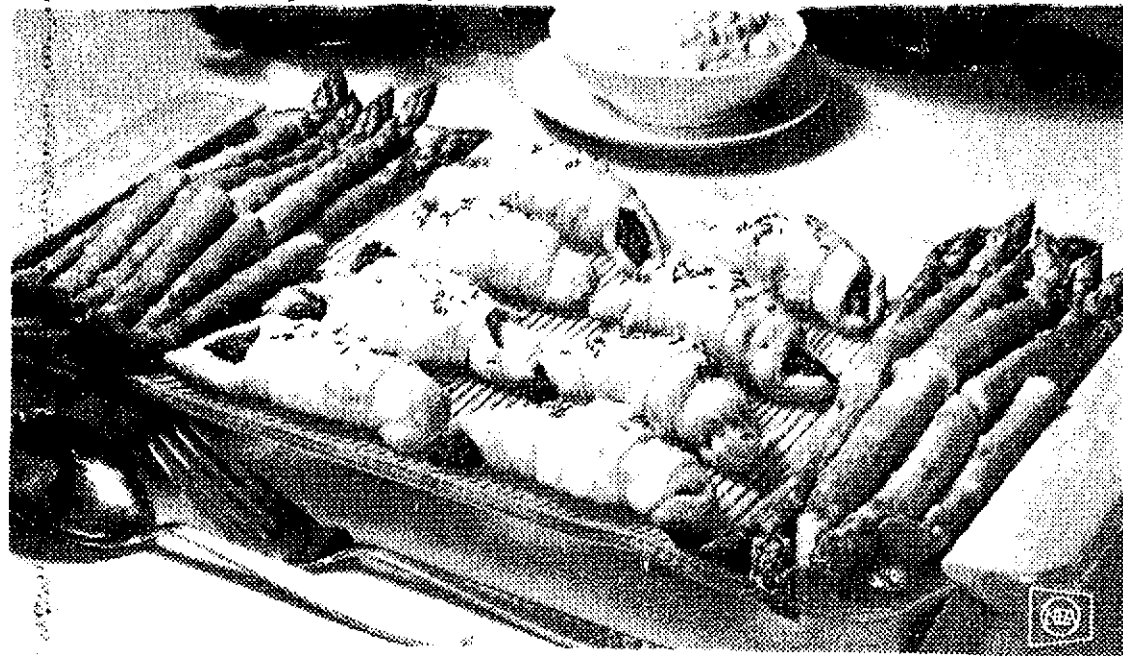

We are pleased to announce that we just made stale bread obsolete. It's our new colorful package that does the trick. It's a resealable, air tight bag with a plastic sealing tie on one end. And this new package is handy to use for many other kitchen tasks, too... long after the fresh bread is gone. We think the new bag is nice. But the important thing to remember is that it's what's in the bag that counts. And you can still count on Meyer's bread. Just like always. So look for the new packages of Meyer's at your grocer's. And help stamp out stale bread.

Dessert Magic Stars Tart, Red Cherry Dumplings

Cheerful desserts put a bright halo to the end of a meal.

An interesting dessert features a biscuit-type dough with tart, red cherries. The combination is dropped by spoonfuls into boiling cherry sauce to cook the dumplings. Serve them hot with whipped or coffee cream.

There are two secrets to keeping these dumplings tender. One is to use lard in the dough, maintains Reba Staggs, home economist, and the other is to keep them tightly covered for the 18 to 20 minute cooking period.

Cherry Dumplings

1 can (16 ounces) red sour, pitted cherries
1 cup sugar
1 cup sifted enriched flour

2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons sugar
3 tablespoons lard
1 egg, slightly beaten
1 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 teaspoon almond extract
2 tablespoons butter or margarine

Boil cherries and sugar in a large frying-pan for 3 minutes. Cut together flour, baking powder, salt and sugar. Cut lard into dry ingredients until crumbs are about the size of small peas. Combine egg, milk, vanilla and almond extract. Add to dry ingredients, mixing only until moistened. Add butter or margarine to cherry sauce and bring to a boil. Stir well. Drop dumplings by spoonfuls into boiling cherry sauce, making 6 to 8 dumplings. Cover tightly. Reduce heat and simmer 18 to 20 minutes. Serve hot. Top with cream, if desired. 6 to 8 dumplings.

President of Gen. Motors in Apology

By HARRY KELLY

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Abraham A. Ribicoff listened to the private detective spin a Keystone Cops yarn and then looked with some sympathy toward the president of General Motors.

"I can imagine Mr. Roche is wondering why General Motors spent $6,700," said Ribicoff, chairman of the Senate Government Operations subcommittee. For the $6,700 General Motors bought an investigation of Ralph Nader, young attorney and critic of auto safety, particularly of GM's Corvair—and put GM President James M. Roche in the position of apologizing twice to Nader and Ribicoff's subcommittee.

Roche apologized once before private investigator Vincent Gillen testified and then did it again after Gillen, hired by GM to carry out the investigation, had his say and crossed swords with Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, D-N.Y.

The aim of the investigation, Roche said, was to gather information about Nader's background as an attorney and expert on safety and to learn whether he had any connection with some hundred lawsuits involving about $40 million in damage claims relating to the design of 1960 through 1963 Corvairs.

But before the investigation came to a halt Nader's personal life, his high school and college grades, his eating habits and sex life all came under the scrutiny of Gillen's private eyes in interviews with Nader's friends and associates and in a period of direct surveillance of him.

"To the extent that General Motors bears responsibility, I want to apologize here and now to the members of this subcommittee and Mr. Nader," said Roche.

Gillen, a man with wavy gray hair and black-framed glasses, expressed his thanks to the subcommittee for "this opportunity to inform you frankly and fully about the investigation of Ralph Nader. It involved no harassment; no intimidation; no attempt to defame; no following him around the country. No telephone harassment, no recordings, and no women."

Gillen drew laughter even from Roche as he told of some of his difficulties in trying to locate Nader, denied as "fantastic" that his gumshoes followed a reporter instead of Nader into a Senate Office Building and brushed off the fact that Capitol police had ordered them out of the building. But he offered his apologies to the Senate.

Fresh asparagus is one of the most welcome signs of spring. Today, asparagus growers are getting it to our markets quicker and fresher than ever before. A good part of the crop is shipped in cargo jets.

Give asparagus preferred treatment. Chill it promptly as soon as it reaches your kitchen. Don't overcook it. Try a spear or two with a fork and if it's crisp-tender, restrain that impulse to cook it a minute or two longer "just to make sure it's cooked." Even the briefest overcooking can ruin both texture and flavor.

When asparagus spears are cooked in an upright position in about 1½ inches of boiling salted water, however, allow an additional 3 to 5 minutes cooking time because the tips must steam.

FRESH ASPARAGUS, SKILLET-COOKED WITH AVOCADO BUTTER
1 bunch (about 2 lbs.) fresh asparagus

1 teaspoon salt
Boiling water

Cut or break off each stalk of asparagus as far down as it snaps easily. If very sandy and tough, remove scales with a knife. Wash well, using a brush. Place asparagus in 2 layers in large skillet, sprinkle with 1 teaspoon salt. Pour in boiling water to about 1-inch deep. Bring to boil; cook uncovered 5 minutes or until lower part of stalks are just crisp-tender. Lift stalks out with tongs. Serve with avocado butter.

AVOCADO BUTTER

1 fresh, ripe avocado, medium-size
1½ tablespoons fresh lemon juice
¼ teaspoon salt
1/16 teaspoon ground black pepper
¼ cup mayonnaise
1 hard-cooked egg, coarsely chopped

Peel avocado, remove seed, cut into blender; add next four ingredients. Blend at high speed until smooth, about 4 minutes. Fold in hard-cooked egg.

Leftover Delight

by Gaynor Maddox
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

A standing rib roast of beef or a top round, or sirloin, rolled roast makes very special Sunday eating. But what about leftovers? Here are two excellent answers:

BEEF SANDWICH WITH CREAMY COLE SLAW TOPPING
(Serves 6)

6 slices cooked beef, cut ¼-inch thick
6 slices bread, toasted
1 cup shredded cabbage
½ cup grated carrot
2 tablespoons chopped onion
¼ cup salad dressing
¼ teaspoon curry powder
Sliced ripe olives, if desired

Spread butter or margarine on one side of each slice of bread. Place slice of beef on buttered side of each bread slice. Combine cabbage, carrot, onion, salad dressing and curry powder. Top each sandwich with approximately ¼-cup of cabbage mixture. Garnish with sliced ripe olives, if desired.

OPEN-FACE WESTERN SANDWICHES

(Serves 6)

2 cups ground cooked beef
2 tablespoons finely chopped onion
½ teaspoon prepared horseradish
1½ teaspoons salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ cup mayonnaise
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
6 slices white bread
2 cup chili sauce
2 cup grated Cheddar cheese

Combine ground beef, onion, horseradish, salt, pepper and mayonnaise. Mix well. Butter bread slices. Spread with meat mixture, extending well to the edge of bread. Mix together chili sauce and cheese. Top each sandwich with approximately 3 tablespoons of chili sauce-cheese mixture. Arrange sandwiches on cookie sheet and place in a very hot oven (450 degrees) 10 minutes, or until bread is toasted and cheese is melted.

Lower Fruit Prices Seen

by Gaynor Maddox, Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Q—Did the storms in Florida and California harm the oranges and grapefruit? Will prices be higher?

A—Stop worrying and start squeezing oranges. Here's why. The Department of Agriculture reports: The citrus crop is expected to be greater than the previous crop and a lot bigger than average. Mid-January grower prices for citrus fruits were below those of a year ago. Growing conditions for the 1965-66 citrus crops have been generally good to excellent, with prospects that the current orange crop will be around 9 per cent greater than the previous crop and the current grapefruit crop is expected to be up 12 per cent and lemons up 18 per cent.

Q—How long should fresh vegetables stay fresh? Mine seem to wilt much too fast.

A—Most fresh vegetables retain top quality only a few days, even under ideal storage conditions. The best way to keep them fresh and crisp is to put in covered containers or plastic bags in the refrigerator. Be sure you thoroughly drain lettuce, celery and other leafy vegetables before storing. Too much moisture left on them hastens wilting and decay.

Q—Is it absolutely necessary to use so many chemical pesticides to protect our crops from bugs? Isn't there some other way?

A—Research is hard at it trying to find biological, rather than chemical, methods for control of insects. Things look good. One method that gives promise is the use of "good guy" insects, those that will destroy the crop-destroying or "bad guy" bugs but do not harm the crops themselves. The use of sound waves, light flashes and traps to catch and destroy insects are being researched. Pesticide manufacturers take notice!

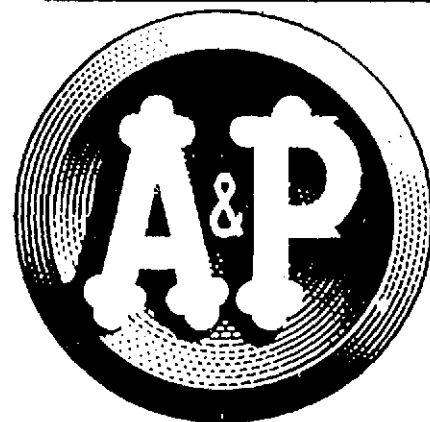

Q—What foods will be on the plentiful list in March? I always try to use the plentiful foods in my family meals because they are better buys.

A—If your family likes peanuts, then March is the happy season for them. There's a record-breaking peanut crop. Peanuts, remember, are a good source of protein and can be used in meat-restricted lentin diets. Other items on the list of plentiful foods include rice, eggs, potatoes and fresh oranges.

Chicken Treat for Festive Dinner

For a very special occasion, such as Easter or a gala announcement dinner, this Roquefort baked chicken and grapes is remarkably delicious. It has gaiety and a touch of sophistication.

ROQUEFORT BAKED CHICKEN teams with grapes.

- ROQUEFORT BAKED CHICKEN AND GRAPES
(Serves 6)
- 6 whole chicken breasts, split
 - Salt and paprika
 - 1/2 cup (1 stick) butter or margarine
 - 1/4 cup oil
 - Juice of 1 lemon
 - 1/2 cup (2 ounces) Roquefort cheese, crumbled
 - 1/4 cup cracker crumbs
 - 1 1/2 cups green grapes

Remove rib and breast bones from chicken breasts. Trim excess skin. Wash chicken and pat dry. Sprinkle with salt and paprika. Heat 1/4 cup of the butter or margarine and oil in a large skillet. Add lemon juice slowly to prevent splattering. Fry chicken breasts until golden brown on both sides. Mix Roquefort with remaining butter or margarine. Stir in cracker crumbs. Place chicken breasts, skin side up, in a well-greased shallow pan. Chicken should not overlap but should be in a single layer. Press crumb mixture over top of each piece of chicken. Bake in a preheated moderate oven (350 degrees) for 20 to 25 minutes, or until topping is golden brown and chicken is tender. Meanwhile cook pan drippings in which chicken was fried until bubbly, or about 2 minutes. Stir over low heat, loosening brown bits from skillet. Stir in grapes. Remove from heat. Place chicken on a platter and spoon grape mixture over chicken breasts.

Tasty Tidbit

For delectable pinwheel sandwiches, use this novel way with dried beef: shred finely 1 jar (5 ounces) dried beef. Add 1 package (8 ounces) cream cheese softened with 1/4 cup of half and half cream and 1 tablespoon mayonnaise. Fold in 1/4 cup finely chopped chutney. Spread filling on slices of white bread which have been rolled thin with a rolling pin. Roll as for jelly roll, chill thoroughly and then slice about 1/2-inch thick for "pinwheels."

Smuggling Big Business Over the U.S.

By JACK KNEECE

BALTIMORE, Md. (AP) — Like a scene from a 1930 movie, a truck is waved down by police on an isolated highway and contraband worth thousands of dollars is confiscated.

But the scene is far from entertaining to Maryland and New York tax authorities, who say a booming multimillion-dollar business in untaxed, smuggled cigarettes bound for New York has caused major revenue losses.

Edward F. Englebert Jr., head of Maryland's Sales Tax Division, says running bootleg cigarettes, purchased for $1.85 a carton in North Carolina, has burgeoned into a "mammoth operation to rival the old days of Al Capone."

He says the tough types who drove the truck in the films have been replaced by mild-mannered novices — including women — who apparently have been assured that Maryland's misdemeanor law aimed at combating such traffic is not stringent. Example: the first man convicted last month received a suspended sentence and a fine.

It began when New York raised its cigarette tax bringing the price of a pack to 45 cents in some places, much more than the price in North Carolina — or even Washington, D.C.

Since last summer, Maryland State Police and tax authorities have confiscated more than 50,000 cartons of cigarettes being hauled in everything from the largest tractor vans to private cars. And they estimate that this represents only a small percentage of total traffic.

Englebert pleaded with the current session of the Maryland Legislature to make Maryland's law tougher.

"It's beyond belief what's going on in this business," he told lawmakers. He said New York's loss last year was an estimated $25 million in taxes on smuggled cigarettes. He said some of the cigarettes are sold in Maryland, resulting in more than $750,000 in lost tax revenue.

There is no cigarette tax in North Carolina and Englebert said most of the traffic comes from there.

Frustrated tax agents, working with Maryland State Police, now must spot some small traffic violation or other excuse to stop vehicles suspected of carrying northbound smokes.

Recent examples include a faulty muffler, no light shining on a license plate, a windshield wiper check, and other minor excuses.

The law prevents searching a closed van unless tax authorities have a "good reason" for suspecting contraband.

Englebert described the illicit traffic as "worse than prohibition" of the 1930s.

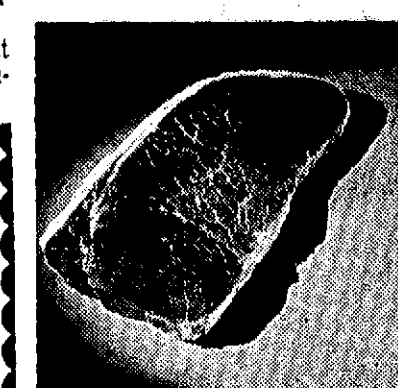

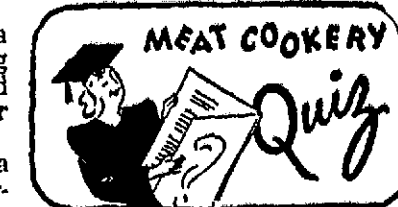

"The attitude today seems to be that a package of cigarettes is just a package of cigarettes," he said. "Who cares where it came from? But I tell you this is backed by organized crime — and it's getting bigger every day."

Englebert said North Carolina has no law to prevent such interstate traffic because there is no cigarette tax.

"They just don't care down there. Why should they? They manufacture most cigarettes; they make money; they don't care where they're going."

Conviction under present Maryland law could mean fine of $25 for each carton and up to five years of imprisonment for maximum sentence. But jurists have been reluctant to go this far. The law prohibits carrying more than one carton through the state or more than two packages into the state by a resident.

Q. What is the name of this cut of meat?

A. Beef top round steak.

Q. Where does it come from? How is it identified?

A. It comes from the hindquarter of beef known as the "round." This is a boneless piece of meat with a very narrow edging of fat around one side. Beef top round can be distinguished from the bottom round because it is one muscle as compared with the bottom round which has two muscles. The top round occasionally does have a small piece of the sirloin tip muscle, as shown in the illustration, since this cut lies next to the sirloin section.

Q. How is it prepared?

A. By braising. This means browning the meat in a small amount of lard or drippings, then adding a small amount of liquid. The utensil is covered tightly and the meat is cooked slowly, either on top of the range or in the oven, approximately 1 1/2 hours for a 3 1/2-inch thick steak, or until tender.

Oranges, Apples Spice Tzimmes

PASSOVER TZIMMES have oranges and apples added.

For the joyous Seder supper of the Passover season (begins April 5), our gracious neighbor, Mrs. Cel Silberman, prominent in Orthodox Jewish activities, supplied these family recipes for our readers.

Her browned matzoh balls are delicious. She shapes them about an inch in diameter, boils and then drains them. Next she places them in a shallow baking pan with a little shortening and leaves them in a hot oven until evenly browned. She serves

Experiment on Fish May Aid Humans

By J. C. TILLMAN
Associated Press Writer
LONOKE, Ark. (AP) — The electrode grill was applied, the current snapped on, the patient convulsed, and in a matter of seconds, lapsed into unconsciousness.

The switch went off, the patient breathed very slowly for nine minutes, then revived quickly and in seconds was normal again.

A scene from Secret Agent? A bizarre experiment in a darkened laboratory?

Neither. The scene was the state Fish Hatchery here. The patient was a fish.

But don't go away. Some day it could be you.

Scientists have been working since 1875 to perfect a way to electrically anesthetize human beings.

"A safe and effective means of achieving almost instantaneous induction of and recovery from anesthesia would have many practical applications," say three University of Mississippi researchers, Dr. James D. Hardy, M. Don Turner and C. Don McNeill.

They put it this way: "Unlike most drugs used to produce general anesthesia, with which induction and recovery are relatively slow and the depth of anesthesia uncertain and at times only grossly controlled, an electric current could be precisely calibrated and turned quickly on and off at will."

The practical application being made here of electroanesthesia may not further scientific research into such anesthesia for surgery on human beings.

But it is considered an advance that will benefit a rapidly growing industry of raising food fish.

The government has predicted that the world will turn more and more to fish for food as shortages of other commodities occur.

The fledgling fish farming industry has little trouble producing sufficient fish. But harvesting them in large numbers is an almost insurmountable problem.

Roy Pruitt and his son-in-law, Steve King, operators of a fish farm here, developed the device to put fish to sleep. "Steve is the electronics expert," Pruitt says.

It is used to "knock out" a number of fish trapped in a net, so they can be pulled ashore, sorted, graded and readied for the market with ease.

A 20-pound buffalo or carp can be hard to handle when it is thrashing around. A couple of hundred of them are a real problem.

Pruitt calls the device the Handy Dandy Shocker, then retracts the title.

"It really isn't a shocker. I don't think you could hurt a fish with it if you tried. The amperage is too low. We'll have to get another name for it."

"Shockers" using both direct and alternating current have been used in the industry, but Pruitt terms them impractical. They are used to knock out the fish in the pond, then workers use dip nets or hands to pick them up.

"I could work men to death doing that," Pruitt quoted one farmer as saying.

The device will have applications other than harvest work. A California firm has ordered one of the units to use in raising trout. The female trout will be anesthetized, their eggs taken from them, then fertilized by hand for controlled hatches.

The unit can also be used to anesthetize fish which must be handled in research projects.

A fish can be tranquilized for as long a period as desired. There are other possibilities for the device.

One major problem in the industry is keeping the fish en route from pond to table. Another is keeping their appearance suitable to the housewife.

Conceivably, fish could be anesthetized, moved to tanks, and hauled alive to market unharmed, providing the freshest possible food for sale.

Time Saver

How much time is saved by roasting fresh pork loins to the newly recommended 170° F. as compared to the older accepted time of 185° F.?

When roasted at 325° F., the pork loins require five to six minutes a pound less for cooking time. Since the average pork loin roast weighs five to six pounds, this means a saving of 30 to 35 minutes.

Deviled Mushrooms

Did you know that a 2 1/2-ounce can of deviled ham will fill six large mushroom caps? These can be broiled 7 to 10 minutes, 3 inches from heat, and used as a garnish for lamb chops, steak, scrambled eggs or pork sausage links when you want to make the platter especially attractive.
